

Retrospective CHP 'Chi ha paura...? - Who's afraid' at Vicenzaoro, Vicenza, Italy

As part of Italy's leading gold and jewellery fair 'Vicenzaoro', running from 21 till 25 May 2011 at the city of Vicenza, an unprecedented retrospective of the CHP collection will be on show. To fit the occasion three naval containers located at Vicenza's central city square will be turned into a special exhibition space presenting the entire CHP collection. Curated by architect and design critic Alba Capellieri, the exhibition will also feature all prototypes ever made for CHP and the complete Body Stories project. Moreover, as part of the exhibition, a pop-up shop sells the CHP collection and Electa will publish the accompanying catalogue (photo). The presentation is on display from 21 May until 21 June. Yii 'Street Life - The real spirit of Taiwan'

After having been warmly welcomed by audience and press alike at last year's Salone, Yii launched another greatly successful collection showing the synergy between Taiwanese craft and design. Where last year the collection was an exploration of possible synergies, this year's cooperation between craftsmen and designers resulted in a series of fully engineered products.

The Milan Breakfasts

Premsele and the Design Academy Eindhoven (DAE) discussed burning issues in design at The Milan Breakfasts on 14, 15 and 16 April, during the Salone Internazionale del Mobile. The public was welcomed with free coffee, croissants and quality conversations on design at Studio Zeta Milano in Milan. Photos, videos and podcasts from the breakfasts can be found here
